

Chaperones for Sports Glamour Ltd

MODEL AGENCY

Statement

This Policy sets out guidance for the use of Chaperones to accompany models when a model is attending for interview for a position or meeting with Sports Glamour Ltd.

This policy applies to all professional or non-professional models working within the Glamour/Adult Industry who wish to be a recruit with Sport Glamour Ltd.

Chaperone roles and responsibilities

Prospective models must find their own Chaperone; this may be a relative, partner, colleague or friend.

All chaperones are expected to accompany model(s) at a time and venue, which suits the said model when attending for interview or meetings with Sports Glamour Ltd.

The chaperone may ask any questions and check any documentation on behalf of the model she feels relevant.

Consent

*Consent must be given for any pictures/photos/film to be used by Sports Glamour Ltd for their website and any promotions of the model and by the model and witnessed by the chaperone if the model so wishes.

Please note:

If a model does not wish to be accompanied by a chaperone this will be adhered to and thus the model must agree to the above* if she so wishes.

Lone Working

Where a model may be on assignment on her own she must let myself (Gary – Sports Glamour Recruitment Executive/Agent) and her chaperone have the details of the assignment i.e. venue, time, contact number and person to contact at the venue (in case of an emergency).

I hereby (the model) give my consent to Sport Glamour Ltd to use pictures/photos/film of me for there website and any promotions: *I wish my / I do not wish my chaperone to be a witness to the above.
